

200 honor Burases of

Present for event
is only attendant
at 1910 wedding

By Irene King
(Woman's Editor)

Celebration of their anniversary Sunday was almost as big event for Mr. and Mrs. William Buras as their wedding 50 years ago.

More than 200 friends and relatives called at the home of Mrs. F. B. Walker for an open house at which host was Mrs. Clyde Norris of Grammercy, La., niece of the honorees who had been reared by them.

On hand for the celebration just as she had been half a century ago for the quiet ceremony which united her sister and Mr. Buras, was Mrs. L. L. Watts. The former Miss Emma Davidson, she was the only attendant to the bride. Mr. Buras' best man is not living.

Mrs. Buras wore for the reception a beige lace dress with corsage of golden roses. Mrs. Watts chose just as she had for the wedding a gown of turquoise and her corsage was of golden carnations.

Yellow roses, chrysanthemums and gladioli were used throughout the house and centering the

People... Places... Parties... Plans... In Paspouint

Malton J. Bullock, Dorothy Marie Bullock, Joe Bullock, Mr. and Mrs. Grafe, Mr. and Mrs. Ardoin and Trisha and Miss Linda Greene of Moss Point.

Mrs. Grace Colmer, Mrs. H. W. Sibley, Floyd Daniel, Pascagoula; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bullock, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Bullock, Mobile; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Boney, Mr. and Mrs. Milton P. Johnson and sons Chuck, Dusty and Rocky, Mr. and Mrs. Craymon Bullock and son William; Miss Leila Hammett, Miss Neld Burns, Biloxi; and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bullock, Wade.

* * *

Moss Point

Attend WSCS

Miss Ina Thompson, Mrs. Alfred Dickson and Mrs. Joe Bishop were guests at a meeting of Caswell Springs WSCS Tuesday at the church there. Miss Thompson

Mr. and Mrs. Bass who lege in M
aunt Mrs.
bert, Ga.
Mr. and tiesburg,
Mrs. Hapi
Misses I

Ziegler, i guests for Mrs. G. A
sie Cowar
Hor
John S
Wednesda
Stubbs, w
it Univer
During hi
er Cerne nd will chile.

Mike W
ile Mo Methodist and was nd Mrs. ister Can unday a y cut and eating a f Christr

ng rapid ases crut
e able to Dr.
"Happy

tion a beige lace dress with corsage of golden roses. Mrs. Watts chose just as she had for the wedding a gown of turquoise and her corsage was of golden carnations.

Yellow roses, chrysanthemums and gladioli were used throughout the house and centering the table covered with a lace cloth was an arrangement of yellow mums and yellow candles. The big three tiered cake was decorated in yellow and white.

Serving punch were Mrs. Lonnie Watts and Mrs. J. K. Walker. Miss Carol Moore of New Orleans was in charge of the guest book and tea girls were Barbara Kay, Kathy and Linda Walker and Lillie Belle Norris of Grammetey.

Out-of-town guests were Billy

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM BURAS

Davidson, New York; Mrs. M. Bouche, Mrs. Louise Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. A. Tauzy, Miss Sarah Convery, Mrs. Josephine Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Moore and son Allen, New Orleans and Mrs. Ed Mason, Mobile.

★ ★ ★

The 80th birthday of Mrs. Lottie Nelson was celebrated Saturday at her home at 414 Dantzler Street, Moss Point, when her daughter and daughters-in-law Mesdames R. L. Miles, H. E. Nelson and C. L. Nelson entertained in her honor.

A decorated cake and coffee were served to about 35 friends who were seated in the living room which was decorated with pink and white camellias.

★ ★ ★

Paulette Rouse will leave this morning to compete at McComb for the title of Junior Miss Mississippi in McComb. She will be accompanied by her aunt Mrs. Howard Renfro, with whom she makes her home; Mrs. George Kitchens and Mrs. Jon Bennett of the sponsoring Jaycettes.

There will be a luncheon at noon, rehearsal in the afternoon and parade at 4 p.m. A dinner with the judges is scheduled at 6 p.m. and the contest is at 7:30 p.m. followed by a party.

Saturday there will be a breakfast followed by press interviews with the winner.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bresemann were surprised Sunday when a large group of friends and relatives arrived at their home to help them celebrate their silver wedding anniversary.

Plans were well laid and they had been invited with the Willie Ardoin for coffee and cake at the Ralph Grafes. When they returned home the crowd had assembled, bringing a four-tiered wedding cake and fruit punch.

Those present included Mrs. Mary F. Bullock, Biloxi, mother of Mrs. Bresemann, and David Alan Bresemann, their son. Others were Mr. and Mrs. John Bowman and daughters Christinne and Jeannette, Mrs. Doris Bilbo,

Attend WSCS

2

Miss Ina Thompson, Mrs. Alfred Dickson and Mrs. Joe Bishop were guests at a meeting of Caswell Springs WSCS Tuesday at the church there. Miss Thompson gave a study on Africa, presenting letters to her from missionaries in the Belgian Congo and reviewing a book "Call of the Congo" written by Mrs. Ann L. Ashmore of Jackson. After the meeting there was a social.

The R. L. Wainwrights visited in Coden, Ala., Sunday and stopped in Franklin Creek on their way home to visit her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. John Morie.

Mrs. C. E. Price returned Sunday after accompanying her daughter Mrs. Frank Mixson and Jimmy home to Georgetown, S. C., after they spent several weeks with her. She visited a week in the Mixson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gelpi, Tylertown, visited her son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Earl Turnage.

Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Cirlot and children went to Laurel Saturday to celebrate the birthday Sunday of her mother Mrs. J. C. Holifield. Mrs. Holifield's four sons and four daughters were all present with their families for the occasion.

Capt. and Mrs. W. D. Dubuison went to Mobile Friday to visit her brother-in-law Sherwood McBroome, Fairhope, who was in a hospital there. They met Mrs. H. E. Smith, Stockton, Ala., and brought her back for a visit. Saturday the Dubuissions went back to Mobile to attend the '49ers ball.

Instead of spending between-semester time with her parents

RITZ

SUN. THRU WED.

CECIL B. DE MILLES

SAMSON

AND DELILAH

THE STAGGERING
STORY OF STRENGTH...
AND SEDUCTION!

CECIL B. DE MILLES' "SAMSON AND DELILAH"

LAMARR-MATURE-SANDERS-LANSBURY-WILCOXON

Produced and Directed by CECIL B. DE MILLES. Screenplay by IRVING L. TAYLOR. Music by FRANK M. FRAKE. From original treatment by HAROLD LLOYD and FRANK M. FRAKE.

Based upon the history of Samson and Delilah in the Holy Bible. Judges 13-16. A Paramount Production. TECHNICOLOR